LEHIGH COUNTY OFFICIALS URGE RESIDENTS TO REPORT STORM DAMAGE

Lehigh County, PA- Lehigh County Emergency Management officials continue to monitor the effects of Tropical Storm Ida on the county. The office is encouraging residents to report storm damage that may have been sustained after the remnants of Tropical Storm Ida moved through the area. This will provide both the municipalities and the county a better understanding of the extent of the damage throughout Lehigh County.

Lehigh County residents can report their damages to their home/property by completing the survey at:

<https://survey123.arcgis.com/share/2eef2ea1f0f049ce9d5d219f6b8e14ba?portalUrl=https://LehighGIS.maps.arcgis.com>.

Please feel free to upload pictures of the damage into the survey as well.

For more information on the Damage Survey, call the Lehigh County Emergency Management Agency at (610) 782-4600.
