OLD BUSINESS:

1. Emergency Operations Plan Update

Western District Fire Chief, Ira Shade and Citizens Fire Company, Joseph Sherman both attended the meeting to discuss their thoughts on the Draft Emergency Operations Plan. The Fire Chiefs and Board of Supervisors had a discussion regarding the draft plan. The Supervisors and Fire Chiefs all agreed that they need a little more time to fully review the plan. The Supervisors asked Secretary Zeravsky to coordinate a public meeting with the Fire Chiefs and possibly the Lehigh County Emergency Management Coordinator. Tentatively, there will be further discussion on the Emergency Management Plan at the November 7th meeting. Supervisor Sentner and Supervisor Mohr suggested that an addendum could be attached to the current draft plan, which meets minimum requirements. The addendum could include evacuation routes and more detailed information that further pertains to Upper Milford Township.

NEW BUSINESS: - None

ANY OTHER BUSINESS:

Supervisors Sentner asked the Fire Chiefs their opinions on a total burn ban within the Township. Both Fire Chiefs agreed that it would not be a good idea and would open a can of worms within the entire Township.
