Supervisor Sentner reported the ESC held a special meeting for the fire departments to discuss the budget. They set up a subcommittee to set up a pro forma to compare apples to apples for the fire companies. He stated the fire companies are on a course for insolvency at some point if the problem isn't fixed. He said the information should be before the board in the next 30 days. He also stated that Joyce was there for some of the discussion. He felt it was a concern over replacement of equipment and that there needs to be a plan for the fire companies.

Supervisors Moore said she wasn't there to hear of the insolvency concern. She apologized that she had another commitment.

ADJOURNMENT: Meeting was adjourned at 7:23 pm.
